

Community College Enrollment (2013)

Explanation: The count of all students by their home county who are enrolled in a community college regardless of their interest in seeking certification, an associate degree, diploma, transitional work, or career enhancement through continuing education courses.

Source: North Carolina Community Colleges