

High School Dropout Rate (2013)

Explanation: The rate at which a student leaves a school system of North Carolina and does not re-enroll within another school system or state approved education program. Counties with multiple LEAs had the amounts consolidated by finding a weighted average. This calculation includes charter school dropout rates.

Source: North Carolina Department of Public Instruction