

County Per Pupil Expenditures Current Expense (2013)

Explanation: The amount of money allocated by county governments to the LEAs in the county by student. The total amount is divided by the county's average daily membership to create the average per pupil expenditure. Counties with multiple LEAs had their amounts consolidated by finding a weighted average.

Source: North Carolina Department of Public Instruction