

COUNTY COMMISSIONER INTERVIEW & TOUR OF COUNTY GOVERNMENT

Molly Carlson
ORANGE COUNTY

COUNTY COMMISSIONER Renee Price

How long have you served on the board?
Will you run for re-election when your current term expires?

Renee Price has served since 2012 and won the primary re-election, so she will be serving for another 4 years.

What are your local priorities, or what county issues hold the most importance to you?

Renee Price feels issue that holds the most importance to her is community impute. She wants the county to come together through community centers and other county activities.

Are there long-term concerns you have about the county?

Renee Price believes that a long-term concern for Orange County is the income gap and the diversity.

What are the biggest issues citizens ask you about?

*“Why do I have to pay for my garbage bin?”
Renee Price also added that Budget Season,
Firearms and Bicycle safety are commonly asked about by citizens.*

What are some of the responsibilities that you were not aware of when you ran for office?

“I was not aware of the intensity of the budget process and the amount of citizen complaints.”

What are some of the hardest decisions you've faced as a county commissioner?

“Voting on taxes is the hardest decision to make because you have to look at every point of view before you vote on it.”
